

COLOSSIANS

Colossians is one of the most Christ-centered books of the Bible. In it, Paul stresses the supremacy of the person of Christ and the completeness of the salvation He provides in order to combat a growing heresy in the church at Colossae. Christ, the Lord of creation and Head of the body which is His church, is completely sufficient for every spiritual and practical need of the believer. The believer's union with Christ in His death, resurrection, and exaltation is the foundation upon which his earthly life must be built. Relationships inside and outside the home can demonstrate daily the transformation that faith in Jesus Christ makes in the walk of the believer.

Author: Apostle Paul, while imprisoned in Rome under house arrest (Acts 28:16-31; Col 4:18)

Date: Written around AD 60

Audience: Church at Colosse, which was started by Epaphras (Col 1:7-8)

Purpose: Main purpose was to refute the heresy that had entered the church. The heresy was a mixture of Jewish legalism, eastern mysticism, and an early stage of Gnosticism. The heresy was marked by:

1. Ceremonialism (2:16-17, 11; 3:11)
2. Asceticism (rigid self-denial) (2:21,23)
3. Angel worship (2:18)
4. Depreciation of Christ (1:15-20; 2:2-3,9)
5. Secret knowledge (Gnosticism) (2:18, 2-3)
6. Reliance on human wisdom and tradition (2:4,8)

Major Theme: Jesus Christ alone is sufficient!

Introduction and Title – If Ephesians can be labeled the epistle portraying the “Church of Christ”, then Colossians must surely be the “Christ of the Church”. Ephesians focuses on the Body, Colossians on the Head, the first portion doctrinal (1-2) and the second practical (3-4). Paul’s purpose is to show that Christ is preeminent – first and foremost in everything - and the Christian’s life should reflect that priority. Because believers are rooted in Him, alive with Him, hidden in Him, and complete in Him, it is utterly inconsistent for them to live life without Him. Clothed in His love, with His peace ruling in their hearts, they are equipped to make Christ first in every area of life.

Theme and Purpose – The resounding theme in Colossians is the preeminence and sufficiency of Christ in all things. The believer is complete in Him alone and lacks nothing because “in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily” (2:9); He has “all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge” (2:3). There is no need for speculation, mystical visions, or ritualistic regulations as though faith in Christ were insufficient. Paul’s predominant purpose was to refute a threatening heresy that was devaluating Christ, by a positive presentation of His true attributes and accomplishments. A proper view of Christ is the antidote for heresy. Paul also wrote this epistle to encourage the Colossians to “continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast” (1:23) so that they will grow and bear fruit in the knowledge of Christ (1:10). A firm adherence to the true gospel will give them stability and resistance to opposing influences. Another purpose in the mind of the apostle is reflected in 3:1-4:6. Paul wanted the Colossians to understand the implications of the preeminence of Christ not only in doctrine, but also for practice. The supremacy of Christ is one side of the coin – submission to Christ is the other. The believer’s position in Him (3:1-2) provides the basis and power for a transformed life in every area.

A very brief outline:

Chapters 1 & 2: What Christ did for us (more "doctrinal" in nature)

Chapters 3 & 4: What Christ does through us (more "application" in nature)

Key to Colossians –

Key Word: Preeminence of Christ

Key Verses (2:9-10; 3:1-2) – “For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power” (2:9-10).

“If then you were raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ is, sitting at the right hand of God. Set your mind on things above, no on things on the earth” (3:1-2).

Key Chapter (3) - Chapter 3 links the three themes of Colossians together showing their cause and effect relationships. Because the believer is risen with Christ (3:1-4), he is to put off the old man and put on the new (3:5-17), which will result in holiness in all relationships (3:18-25).

Survey of Colossians – Colossians is perhaps the most Christ-centered book in the Bible. In it Paul stresses the preeminence of the person of Christ and the completeness of the salvation He provides, in order to combat a growing heresy that is threatening the Church of Colossae. This heresy seeks to devalue Christ by elevating speculation, ritualism, mysticism, and asceticism. But Christ, the Lord of creation and Head of the body, is completely sufficient for every spiritual and practical need of the believer. The last half of the epistle explores the application of these principles to daily life, because doctrinal truth (1-2) must bear fruit in practical conduct (3-4). The two major topics are supremacy of Christ (1-2) and submission to Christ (3-4).
